* Lafayette, Marie Jean Paul Joseph Roch Yves Gilbert du Motier — Marquis de. France. France. Majgen contl army 31 July 1777; wounded at Brandywine 11 Sept 1777. By the act of 21 Oct 1778, it was "Resolved, that the Marquis de la Fayette, major-general in the service of the United States, have leave to go to France, and that he return at such time as shall be most convenient to him. Resolved, that the President write a letter to the Marquis de la Fayette, returning him the thanks of Congress for that disinterested zeal which led him to America, and for the services he hath rendered to the United States, by the exertion of his courage and abilities on many signal occasions. Resolved, that the minister plenipotentiary of the United States of America at the court of Versailles be directed to cause an elegant sword, with proper devices, to be made and presented, in the name of the United States, to the Marquis de la Fayette."

Sailed for France 11 Jan 1779; returned to the U S 27 Apr 1780. By the act of 25 Nov 1781 it was "Resolved, that major-general the Marquis de la Fayette have permission to go to France, and that he return at such time as shall be most convenient to him; that he be informed that on a review of his conduct throughout the past campaign, and particularly during the period in which he had the chief command in Virginia, the many new proofs which present themselves of his zealous attachment to the cause he has espoused, and of his judgment, vigilance, gallantry, and address in its defense, have greatly added to the high opinion entertained by Congress of his merits and military talents; that he make known to the officers and troops whom he commanded during that period that the brave and enterprising services with which they seconded his zeal and efforts, and which enabled him to defeat the attempts of an enemy far superior in numbers, have been beheld by Congress with particular satisfaction and approbation." —; returned to France 22 Dec 1781; [died 30 May 1834.]
